

CESAR'S BISTRO SERVING UP HOLIDAY SPIRIT WITH SPECIAL LUNCH FOR THOSE STRUGGLING WITH HOMELESSNESS

CESAR'S BISTRO CHEF, OWNERS AND STAFF TO SERVE UP MULTI-COURSE LUNCH AT BEACON FOR HIM MINISTRIES HOMELESS OUTREACH DECEMBER 19

One of Long Beach’s most popular restaurants will treat those struggling with homelessness to a holiday lunch featuring authentic Latin American cuisine on Monday, December 19, starting at 10 a.m.

The Chef, co-owner and staff from Cesar’s Bistro will treat 100 homeless men, women, and children to a multi-course, early lunch. The restaurant serves new Latin American Cuisine developed by Chef Cesar Villarreal. The menu is complemented by beer and wine, along with friendly service in a casual atmosphere.

The luncheon, which will be held at Beacon for Him Ministries Homeless Outreach (439 West Anaheim St.), a Long Beach homeless outreach ministry with a mission to share love and hope with homeless and at-risk men, women, and children in the community by building personal relationships with them, and “loving them where they are at.” It will feature lunch specialties prepared by Chef Villarreal, served by his wife and co-owner Luz Angelica Torres and the staff of the restaurant.

“We realize that there are many among us who don’t get the chance to dine out at our restaurant,” says Torres. “Providing this lunch is our way of our way of giving back to the Long Beach community this holiday season while bringing attention to the city’s growing homelessness concern.”

The clients at Beacon for Him will enjoy warming Lentil Soup, Chef Cesar’s specialty Sautéed Rice with Pork and Chicken, and the restaurant’s signature Empanadas.

“We were excited and thankful when Cesar’s Bistro approached us about serving lunch to our clients,” said Shannon James, President at Beacon for Him Ministries. “Our clientele does not get the opportunity to enjoy our local restaurants so this will be very much appreciated.”
